

How to share your data with ADR Scotland

ADR Scotland will ensure that data controllers always maintain control of their data and will provide ongoing support and guidance throughout the process. The below diagram illustrates how the process could work for a data controller.

